

Game Time Limits

- 1) All games are subject to a two (2) hour time limit.
- 2) The start of the two (2) hour time limit is the scheduled game start time, not the actual game start time.
- 3) For games which have a scheduled game following, these time rules shall apply:
 - a) No new inning shall begin after the two (2) hour game time limit expires.
 - b) If play is in the middle of an inning at the end of the two (2) hour game time limit, then play may continue for a maximum ten (10) minute grace period. After the maximum ten (10) minute grace period has expired game play shall stop immediately (regardless of score, inning, game situation, etc) and the field will be made available for the following scheduled game.
 - c) Scores of games that are not officially complete due to time limitations shall revert back to the last fully completed inning (Reference Rules 4.11 and 4.12).
- 4) For games which are the last scheduled game of the day or do not have a game scheduled to follow, these time rules shall apply:
 - a) Game will be played to the final out occurs or the plate umpire calls the game due to weather darkness or safety.
 - b) No new inning shall begin after 8:15 PM or 2 hours 15 minutes after scheduled game start time.
 - c) No pitch will be allowed after 8:30 PM or 2 hours 30 minutes after scheduled game start time.
 - d) Scores of games that are not officially complete due to time limitations shall revert back to the last fully completed inning (Reference Rules 4.11 and 4.12).
- 5) If a player is at bat when the game time limit expires, that player shall complete the at bat before the game is called.
